Agents Wanted.

HAVING TAKEN THE GENERAL AGENCY FOR Mitchell's new National Map for 1854, in the State of Kentucky, I desire to engage a number of energetic persons to can was for the same. The precise terms are not stated except to those prepared and resolved to go into the business. This much however, may be said, that it is not desirable for any to engage, or continue in the business, who cannot make for himself $100 per month.

For particulars, address

MOSELEY'S TUBULAR WROUGHT IRON

ARCH BRIDGES AND ROOFS. THESE Bridges and Roofs have now been fully tosted in this vicinity, and it is universally conceded that they cannot be excelled. The Roots are wholly of Wrought from or mixture of Wood and Iron, Sheeting dwars iron.

Wrought from or interest with the Bridges are wholly Wrought Iron except the floor, which is wood, like the floors of ordinary Bridges. We are prepared to make these structures in any quantities, at prices about as follows:

Railroad Bridges, 50 feet span, 8,000 lbs, $17 50 per foot lines. Commun Read or Turnpike, 50 feet span, 2,660 lbs, $5.75 per foot lineal.

Roois, all iron, 50 feet width of building, $25 per it0 squa e feet, part wood and part iron, from $12 to $20

Roots, all from, 50 feet winth of building, 323 per 110 squa efect, part wood and part from, from 312 to 320 per square.

Increase of span of bridges or width of buildings makes an increase of prices, but the increase in price is no more than the increase of wooden structures.

We can furnish from of every size to work into Bridges and Roofs, and Railroads or other companies onlying the right to use then and the from of us, can make their own structures one third less than the above prices. Our structures weigh only from 1-4 to 1-10 that of wood; difference in freight in a long distance buys our work. In a few days we will have at our Factory, 497 West third street, in this city, four different specimens of our Roof, where the public can inspect them to their satisfaction. We beg them to give us a call, as all our work is warranted, and we ask no pay on ordinary jobs nutil the work is done and approved, payments being secured on contracting. Gentlemen: Having made a particular examination of Goodrich's 'History of All Natious,' I am free to say, that I know of no work, great or small, that centains half the amount of useful and entertaining matter for family reading. It is written in Mr. Goodrich's best tyle. It is a library, a historical library of itself; and it is worth, according to the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the usual cost of good reading. Extract from a Letter from Ex-President Filmers.

I think it eminently deserving of the public patronage. It is necessarily brief, but it brings under review, with its admirable illustrations, the principal subjects worthy of attention in all nations, and to the young especially, it is invaluable.

I have been familliar with Mr. Goodrich's writings for many years, and have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with him; and think him admirably qualified for imparting justruction in a way that brings it within the reach of the common mind.

A SNISTED by my daughter, MARY O. LEWIS, I propose to receive into my house in Frankfort, in addition to three of my grand-daughters, three other girls as boarders and pupils. No other girls will be admitted or tanght. The physical, moral, and intellectual development of these six girls will be the niljects of our care. I have had some experience in teaching, as d believe that this plan combines many advantages and avoids some evils attending large schools.

The charge will be $50 the session of five months for board and teaching.

Apply to me at Frankfort, Ky., for further or more particular information.

If to this we add the un sparing use of treasury money, scattered with reckless profusion in every place of low reso throughout the city, we shall not have so much cause to wonder that the party of the President has succeeded in polling something over six thousand votes.

The result, it is needless to say, has been both unexpected and disastrous. Our confidence was never firmer than on yesterday, for we could not onceive it possible that men having the interests cised complete control, as he supposed, of a great can-e at heart, could draw off and stand about upon a third candidate. STARTA AS IT 18 - Localdari, where we passe the right, is on the fronter of Spirta, but still in Areadia. Here Alpheus, from his glacier cold, on Taygetos, rishesdown the hills in pur suit of his Durian Arealisa. Here is still the rural paradise of oncient Greece, with its pure out, alas, the people! We overlooked long tracts of oak forests—nothing but oak—some ancient tranks, guarded and heavy with a thous and years, and younger woods envering the gently rounded knolls. The morning was divinely to pause in his mad career? No! Onward he pressed; every day sinking lower and lower, under the influence of his uncontrol and uncontrollable passion, until at length his reason gave way, and on Fri and Eurons—the boundary of Sparta. In the and Eurons—the boundary of Sparta. In the splendor of the day every feature of the land umn, DANIEL LAVERY Was, by order of the scape had its clearest form and richest coloring, Probate Court, committed to the Hamilton and from the beds of daisy and crocus at our feet to the snowy pyramids of Taygetus, high above us, everything spoke of life and of spring — There is a village called Lonknike, in a very wild position, high up under the very crest of the mountain, which supplies the Morea with physicians. The boys are even sent to France and Germany to complete their studies. During the day we met with numbers of peasants, driv ing asses laden with bundles of young mulberry Buffalo Express the following good thing and olive irees, from the nurseries of Sparta finere was a refreshing evidence of improvement

As we approached Sparta, the road descended main in places, but in his shifting course he has d between the spurs of the hills. The clumps dent declined rather abruptly, saying in a stream, and the thickers of blackberry, mastic, ilex and a:b dus through which our road would, gave the scenery a charming, wild and rural us pect. The hills—deposits of alluvium left by the pre Adamite floods-took the most remark ourst upon us, stretching in garden like hearty to the foot of the abrupt hills, over which tower ed the sun touched smos of l'aygetus, we saw close on our right, almost the only relic of the Spartan gymmastic exhibitions, we stood on the proscenium and contemplated these silent ruins, and the broad be utiful land-cape. It is one of the finest views in Greece—not so crowded with striking points, not so spleudid in associations as that of Athens, but larger, grander, richer in coloring. The plain, watered by the unfailing down to the Quater's office, and came Enratas, is covered with luxuriant vegetation, and opens its fruitful lap to the moenday sun. In warm countries, water is the great lertilizer, and no part of Greece is so well supplied in this respect

Besides the theatre, the only remains are some masses of Roman brickwork, and the massive substructions of a small temple which the natives call the tomb of Leonidas. I walked over the shapeless rubbish which covers the five hills. It is needless to say, Mr L renewed great fighters belove Agameumon, and there are as brave men as Leonidas to-day. As for the race of military savages whom Lycurgus—the man of ice and iron—educated here, who would wish to restore them? The one virtue of the Spartans-bravery - is always exaggerated, be cause it is their only noble trait. They were coarse, cruel, treacherous and dishonest, and while they acted in two or three instances as a shield to Greece, they dealt the perfidious stabs some person at Monticello, on Monday, and through which she perished at last. The Crescent and the Cross.

To the details of the recent massacre of Christ land Jeddah and Candia by the Native Mestem population, we are combled to add further ac-counts of collisions between the two races in the Tarkish dominions, which occurring nearly simultaneously in different quarters, seem to resage a premeditated war of extermination un dertaken by the laustical Mahommedans of the the lucrossing influence of Christian powers with the Ports. The Sultan and his old school, who book with lear and jealousy upon with the Porte. The Sultan and his ministers are thus placed in a delicate position. They dare not, of course, Countenance these outrages, and it they succor the Christians, it is at the risk that our manifest destiny should work out its and if they succor the Christians, it is set the risk of alienating the Mahommedans of Asla and the Mediterranean islands. TO BE PUBLISHED MONTHLY By A. G. HODGES, Frankfort, Ky.

Deeply impressed that an excellent agricultural paper is indispensably necessary to develope and repre aent the wealth of Kentucky which is invested in farming and stock-ralsing, and their kindred mechanic arts; and well assured that when such a paper is properly presented, it will be well sustained by our intelligent, wealthy, and patriotic people, the subscriber has determined to present such a paper, with the above title, in full confidence of public favor and support.

In this paper the science and practice of farming and gardening and domestic economy, shall be fairly and ably discussed. Here the principles and practices of breeding and raising stock of all kinds shall be set orth, and the pedigrees and descriptions of them faithfully recorded for present use and future reference. Here the inventors and manufacturers of all valuable machinery will find a willing friend, while the confidlog farmer will have an unfliuehing protector from that which is unworthy. But above ail-in this paper an unthring effort will be made to seenre the farming community in that high position to which personal and professional merit ouly can entitle thom.

For this undertaking, in the mechanical and business departments, the subscriber is confident of full qualifi-cations, resulting from his long experience, his enlarged facilities, and his favorable accquaintance as the Public Printer of the State of Ketucky for the last twenty six years.

In the editorial nud original departments no reasonable efforts shall be spared to secure the contributions of the most successful and practical men altions of the country, and in this line altions in the country, and in this line alticular in the country in the countr also will be carefully made from the best exchanges .in appenling first and confidently to Kentuckians, no spirit of selfishness or exclusion is felt or intended.

The paper will be premptly issued, about the middle of each month, and each number will contain sixteen roynicuntto pages, printed on paper and with type and ink of the best quality, and which shall be best ndapted for illustrations of all sorts. Each number will be carefully folded and sticked, and will be securely enreloped and mailed.

An index will accompany each number, and a com piete one will be given with the twelfth number.
